STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Anti-Bullying Ambassadors

This term the Anti-Bullying ambassadors have been working towards their Inclusion badge. They have:

- hosted a whole school assembly for Anti-Bullying week
- held a poster competition to promote Anti-Bullying across the school.

Next term, they will be hosting an event for World Down Syndrome day in March and creating an inclusive and accessible Anti-Bullying video using sign language or captions.

School Council

This term School council have:

- selected the play leaders
- Chose an initiative to improve the school. They decided to focus on OPAL and improving the arts and crafts space. They have written a letter to all parents asking for donations of stencils, easels, pens and other drawing media.
- The children have also expressed their desire to start a gardening club in the spring, taking an area of the sensory garden to plant vegetables in.

Next term School Council will be leading on our Climate Action Plan, running projects across the school and our community which supports a healthy climate for everyone.
